Mr. Ellyson's statement is as follows: "The Democrats have registered their The Democrats have registered their choice of a candidate for Governor, and the honor has been awarded to the Hon. COLONEL JAMES ISSUES STATEMENT ON HIS RE-ELECTION

Colonel B. O. James, who was re-turned to the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth by an overwhelm-ing majority over Major Phil F. Brown. of Botetourt County, made this state-ment to The Times-Dispatch last

"I desire to express my grateful thanks to the Democratic voters of Virginia for their generous support in Eyesterday's primary. I am deeply appreciative of the majority I have received, and especially so in view of the fact that during my canvass I visited only the city of Norfolk and my old home county—Goochiand."

DID NOT CONTROL DRY VOTE

There is a striking fact in the success of Mr. Davis over Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson, backed as was the latter by a combination of the "organization" and Rev. James Cannon, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League. It apparently indicates that the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League cannot control the vote of that organization. It had become known several weeks ago that its vote would be split, but to how great a degree could not be foretold. It is believed that Mr. Ellyson received fewer "dry" votes than Mr. Pollard, although he was supported by the prohibition leaders.

Another factor said to have caused

Another factor said to have caused Mr. Ellyson to lose many votes in Richmond was the statement by Rev. Richmond was the statement by Rev. George W. McDaniel. D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, who brought the name of Mrs. Davis into the campaign. The remarks of Rev. W. W. Royall as to the affrontment of a fish commissioner are also held to have lost Mr. Ellyson many votes.

With the campaign over, politicians last night were bemoaning the fact that it is difficult to name a Reimond citizen to the highest position within the gift of Virginia people. Not in the memory of the oldest inhabitants has a Richmond man been elected Governor, while a number of candidates if from this city who have braved the fight have been defeated.

Official Figures to Settle All Doubt as to Fifth Place for House of Delegates.

TRESNON WINS RE-ELECTION

On Face of Returns, He Has Lead of 261 Votes Over T. Peter Howle. Mercer and Satterfield Are Easy

Richmond's vote in the Democratic Primary on Tuesday, will be officially cardvassed this afternoon by the Board of Election Commissioners. The records are now in the custody of the clerk of the Hustings Court, under seal, and will be delivered to the chairman of the board on demand.

The canvass of the vote is not expected to make any material change The canvass of the vote is not expected to make any material change in the standing of any cadidate, as the figures compiled unofficially leave little room for doubt. The nearest approach to a chance for a reversal is in the race for the Commissioner of Revenue, but the incumbent Henry E. Tresnon, on the face of the unofficial returns, has a lead of 261 over his rival, T. Peter Howle.

The fight for the House of Delegates

The fight for the House of Delegates is apparently settled with Edward R. Fuller, Richard M. Carrington, Albert O. Boschen, James W. Price and J. P. Jones, as the winners.

LOCAL FIGHT IS BETWEEN TRESNON AND HOWLE Locally, the only contest of interest was that between Tresnon and Howle. With two precincts missing, the candidates were running neck and neck, but the results from the last precinct turned the tide of victory to the incumbent, who once before defeated Howle for the same position.
